First Amendment

(A) INTRODUCTORY COMMENTS

This paper is filed with respect to the above-referenced application and the Office Action mailed 07/26/2006. No new matter is added to the application by the amendments made hereinafter. Applicants hereby request reconsideration.

Preliminary matters

In para. 1. of the Action, the Examiner expressed concern as to the multiplicity of inventors and the issue of invention ownership under the 35 U.S.C. and 37 C.F.R. As of the date of invention, all inventors were employees of Hewlett-Packard Company. Moreover, all inventors have assigned all rights, title and interest in the invention and the application to Hewlett-Packard Company.

A formalities rejection under Sec. 112 has been addressed by Amendment to Claim 56.

A rejection is made under Sec. 102. This rejection is addressed under the REMARKS section of this Response. No amendment to the claims is made with respect to this issue.
